

A seminar about the social and professional reintegration of juvenile delinquents in the juvenile justice systems in Bulgaria and Turkey took place in the conference hall of Grand Hotel "Hebar" - Pazardzhik. The guests presented the current situation of the juvenile justice system in Turkey. Professionals from Bulgaria and Turkey exchanged experience and ideas for improving the juvenile delinquents' conditions. Among the participants were representatives of local institutions and organisations concerned with the topic of juvenile justice and child protection.

Before the forum, the guests from Turkey visited the headquarters of Crime Prevention Fund - IGA and got introduced to the team and the activities of the organisation.

Project "Afresh" is implemented by the Turkish Foundation TCYOV in partnership with Crime Prevention Fund - IGA and the Italian Association Il Vergante. The goal of the project is to examine the possibilities for improving the juvenile justice processes in Turkey and the juveniles' reintegration in society.
